Why does The Georgia Ballet need to fundraise?

The cost of providing our community with The Georgia Ballet's high-quality dance training and performances, like The Nutcracker, and its educational outreach programming is not covered by tuition or ticket sales alone. Tuition and ticket sales cover 70% of operating expenses leaving the Ballet to raise the remaining funds from individual, corporate and foundation supporters. In any year, we reach out to the community for support of our school, which trains more than 350 students each week in a variety of dance forms, our professional dance company, which presents more than 20 performances each year at the Cobb Civic Center, and our Arts In Education programming, which introduces 17,000 Cobb County and metro Atlanta school children to the power and beauty of dance annually.

Sustaining the Ballet's programming has been particularly difficult in the current economy. While donations from individual donors have remained level, foundation and corporate support is down making it difficult for the Ballet to reach the overall contributed income needed to meet budgeted expenses. The Ballet has cut expenses wherever possible without compromising performance and teaching standards, but it's not enough to make up the gap in funding. The funds raised through Pirouette in the Park can go a long way in helping the Ballet meet its expenses. Together we can make a difference.

Where will the funds go?

Proceeds from Pirouette in the Park will go to directly support artistic excellence in the school, on stage and in our community through our outreach programs.

Is The Georgia Ballet a not-for-profit?

Yes, The Georgia Ballet is a non-profit arts organization with 501 (c) 3 status. Your contributions to the Ballet are tax deductible as allowed by law.

How can my business help?

We encourage you to solicit sponsorship support from your place of business. Sponsorship levels are $250, $500 and $1,000. Your business can receive EITHER sponsor benefits OR your walker can receive pledge prizes for sponsorships. Please see sponsorship information included in this package or contact Allison Fichter, Development Director, at the Ballet (770.528.0881) or afichter@georgiaballet.org.

We hope everyone will get involved in this fundraiser, as each walker is important its success! We look forward to seeing you on March 27 for Pirouette in the Park and a birthday party for The Georgia Ballet!
